OUR

STAGE

The Alma Mater

On the banks of the old Oswego,
Where Indian campfires gleamed,
Now stands our Alma Mater,
True guardian of the stream.
Tho' our strength dwells ever with us,
We never stronger seem,
Than when we are defending
Fulton's royal Red and Green.

In these halls of our ambition,
True loyalty we learn,
With courage to uphold it,
Ever steadfast sure and firm;
So that when in life's broad vineyard,
Earth's fruits we seek to glean,
We shall always live to honor
Fulton's royal Red and Green.

Though it be on field or platform,
That our valor meets the test,
We are fighting for old Fulton,
And she bids us do our best.
Then with victory as our portion,
Our banners may be seen
Waving high in glorious triumph,
Fulton's royal Red and Green.

Foreword

Preparing for its one grand exit, graduation, the Class of '41 has enacted its living drama in a four year run. It is the purpose of this book to record the separate scenes.

In keeping with the Senior theme, "Dramatics," we have tried to preserve the high-lights, the action, and the varied program of a busy class. For those who are yet to come, and for the memories of the Seniors, we leave this memento of our accomplishments.

Dedication

In token of our respect and admiration, we, the Seniors of 1941, dedicate our issue of the "Fultonian" to Miss Gertrude Johnston, Vice-Principal of Fulton High School.

Her constant sincerity, her generous counsel, and her friendly smile have endeared her as a master director to every player in our four-act performance.

Scenario--What They Say

Miss Bonner—"Your assignments for the week—is that enough?"

Mr. Wood—"Several people have failed to bring their excuses. If they are not in tomorrow—"

Mr. Rose—"Are you with me?"

Miss Preston—"You've got to listen in order to get this!"

Miss McGraw—"If you're bored, get out."

Mr. Abbott—"La leçon pour demain."

Miss Connors: "Oh! Enough of that, class."

Miss Davidson—"I'd like to spend more time on review—but—"

Mr. Horrocks—"If you don't have your work done, you know what to expect."

Miss Bump—"Any other questions on today's work?"

Miss Erb—"I don't see where you could have gotten such a stupid idea. I never said anything of the kind."

Miss Wallace—"You don't know a verb from a load of hay." "And don't sit down!"

Mr. Otis—"Do you get what I mean?"

Miss Brewer—"Where's your slip?"

Mr. Black—"Now, if we can have it quiet!"

Miss Jones—"Girls! Stop talking!"

Miss Hague—"We will stay here until we're quiet."

Miss Sanders—"Hand in your papers regardless of the number of mistakes."

Miss Angier—"Keep your books open and keep studying until that bell rings!"

Miss Otis—"As I always say, the Juniors and Seniors make more noise than my little Freshmen."

Mr. Pratt—"Well, let's see now"

Mr. Frawley—"Clean up!" (Five minutes before the bell rings).

Mr. Wagner—"One, two, three: play!"

Miss Edmunds—"That's all for today."

THE CAST

Senior Officers

President John Hollowell
Vice-President James Ure
Secretary Carol Scheele
Treasurer Albert Wood

To these four we owe our thanks for eight months of faithful service to the Senior Class. They sought no rewards, but received the satisfaction of having done a job well. No finer selection of administrators could have been made by the Seniors.

THE FULTONIAN

Yearbook Staff

"Isn't that done yet!"

"Deadline next week and that's a reality!"

Yep, you're right. Just one of the many things of the Yearbook Staff. This year the Senior class set its sights from the Yearbook Staff to the Press Conference in Syracuse, November eighth and ninth.

They started off with a whiz and they've been going at it ever since—their finished product awaits your decision. What do you think?

Fulton Future Farmers

On October 24th, the "Aggies" had a banquet with their sisters as waitresses. The guest speaker was the principal, Mr. Macdonald.

Frank Panifno won the F. F. A. prize speaking contests in the county, district and state speaking competitions. He took part in the northeastern states contest at Springfield, Massachusetts. Frank spoke on "The Constitution and Agriculture Through Changing Times."

The Fulton boys entertained those of Mexico, Sandy Creek, Central Square, Pulaski, and Hannibal at the Pre-Cornell Rally and Judging Contest at Fulton High School.

The "Aggie" basketball teams took part in the Winter Rally and Basketball Tournament at Mexico. They certainly were active this year. They are good prospects for days to come.

Mixed Chorus

A new group has just been formed in the musical department. This mixed chorus, with the band, orchestra and girl's glee club, presented a concert June 6 in the high school auditorium. With the other musical organizations, the mixed chorus participated in the Oswego County Musical Association Contest at Oswego on May 23. Some of the girls sang at the Senior Play and later at Commencement exercises.

THE FULTONIAN

Commentators Club

The purpose of the Commentators Club is to create interest among the students in current affairs, and also to stimulate discussion of current problems.

The club this year has varied its meetings with speakers, two of whom were Reverend John Warren and Mr. F. W. "Doc" Quiz programs," and general discussions among the students helped to pep up the meetings.

Carpe Diem

The sound of soft music drifting from the gym and the even shuffle of dancers' feet signify the monthly meeting of the shin-bumpers, Carpe Diem.

Each month the club meets and the business meeting is followed by social dancing in the gym. At many of the meetings the club entertains various speakers.

The club is for College Entrance students exclusively.

Journalism Club

The Journalism Club organized on October 30, 1940. A constitution was drawn up under the guidance of Jane Vine, and then presented to the Student Council for approval. The aim of the club is to study the fundamental principles of journalism and to publish a school paper. Each member chooses a phase of news writing in which he is most interested. The club has published one issue of The Buzz this year.

THE FULTONIAN

Poetry Club

Under the leadership of Miss Hague the Poetry Club was organized in the fall of '39 and started activities this year. The aim of the club is to acquaint students with the poets and their works, the fundamentals of writing, and the study of composing poems. The members have made a collection of original poems and hope, in the future, to make a complete book of these. Throughout the year the club held parties and entertained various speakers. Among those were Miss Davidson and Miss Johnston. With the help of Miss Anderson, one of the faculty advisors, the students have attempted choral reading.

The emblem of the club is a scroll with a pen and a "P" for poetry. Although it is a small organization, it hopes to arouse interest and to prove that poetry isn't just "sissy stuff."

THE FULTONIAN

1940 Football Season

On September 21, Fulton High gridmen opened their 1940 Football season with the Alumni as their opponents. After a hard battle Fulton High won by a score of 13 to 0. The outcome of this game gave a favorable indication for a successful season.

The next game, on September 28, Fulton journeyed to Mohawk. Here a warm and sunny day greeted them, with 300 fans witnessing the game. Our boys displayed plenty of power and won by a score of 13 to 0. Fulton scored in the first quarter with Cushman crossing the goal. Later on in the third quarter Karkut scored our other touchdown.

On October 12, Fulton engaged Cortland in a scoreless tie. Before an unusually large crowd, Fulton completely outplayed Cortland, but couldn't cross their goal to score. The High School Band and Kiwanis Drum and Bugle Corps added much to the competitive spirit.

The usual large crowd was on hand at Recreation Park on October 19 to witness the Fulton Oswego game. The day was ideal for football and the playing field was in good condition.

THE FULTONIAN

half ended. With the 10 seconds remaining, Oswego scored their only seven points on a screen pass to Brown who raced 30 yards for the touchdown. The try for the extra point was good and Oswego led by a score of 7 to 0 at the half.

In the third quarter the Red and Green gridmen of Fulton, on a determined drive, plowed to the Oswego 40 yard line. Here Cushman on the next play drove through the center of the Oswego line to score. The ball was muffed before Cushman could follow through with his attempted placement. Our boys continued to overshadow the Oswego team for the rest of the game. The game, which ended in Oswego's favor by a score of 7 to 6, was played mostly in Oswego's territory.

Onondaga Valley of Syracuse came to Fulton on November 2. The field was slippery because of wet weather, but this didn't hinder the victorious Red and Green squad. Within a few moments after the kick off, Fulton scored. Gene Tracy took a pass from center and slashed through the left guard of the Valley team. He outran their secondary and raced 65 yards for a score. Two minutes later, Fulton had the ball again and penetrated deep into Valley territory on a long pass to Tracy who scored a second touchdown. Ernie Valelunga scored a third touchdown from the 20-yard line in the second period. Fulton didn't score again until the last quarter, when two touchdowns were made. Tracy slanted off tackle for one, and Cushman galloped 25 yards for the other. A field goal was made on a kick by Bolen. The game ended with Fulton ahead in a 31 to 6 victory.

The boys on the team who played throughout the football season were: Ends, William Schremph and David Grant; Tackles, Sandy Bonanno and Jack Sheldon; Guards, Harry Leon and Tom Gillard; Center, Joe White; Backs, Joe Cushman, Eugene Tracy, Ernest Valelunga, and Henry Karkut.

THE FULTONIAN

Basketball

After weeks of strenuous practice, Fulton High School opened its 1940-41 Basketball season at Auburn on December 14. Fulton lost to the more experienced Auburn team by a score of 40 to 20.

The next game on December 20 was at Oswego. Oswego started scoring early and led by a score of 22 to 6 at the half. Unable to overcome the lead, Fulton lost 34 to 17.

The first home game was played with Sherrill on January 10. At the end of the first half the game was tied at 7 all, but in the second half Sherrill forged ahead and won, 26 to 14.

Fulton traveled to Baldwinsville on January 14 and suffered a 35 to 22 defeat.

Still unable to get into the win column, Fulton lost to Vocational by a score of 38 to 7. Fulton was completely outclassed by the towering boys from Syracuse.

Fulton lost their next game to North Syracuse on January 29. North Syracuse scored a basket in the last 40 seconds of play and won by one point, 26 to 25.

Auburn came to Fulton on January 31 and went home with a 34 to 25 victory. Fulton led 16 to 14 at the half, but couldn't continue their fine game and lost out in the second half.

THE FULTONIAN

Fulton snapped their seventh game losing streak and beat Baldwinsville 31 to 22 on February 4. Fulton came from behind in the second half and scored 25 points to win.

On February 18, North Syracuse invaded the local court and won, 35 to 14. The game was roughly played with both teams committing many fouls.

The best game in recent years was played when Oswego came to Fulton on February 21. Fulton jumped to an early lead and led 11 to 6 at the end of the first quarter. At the half the score was 16 to 15 in our favor. Oswego came back in the third quarter and led 22 to 21. In the last quarter with the score tied at 26 to 26, Czeriak sank a beautiful one-handed shot that brought everyone to his feet. Then, with 45 seconds remaining, Fulton scored two more points to win, 30 to 28.

Fulton journeyed to Sherrill for their next game and lost, 37 to 27.

On March 1, Carthage High trounced Fulton at Carthage by a score of 29 to 13.

A week later on March 7, Fulton brought their season to a close by playing Carthage again. This time our boys won a closely fought 23 to 19 game.

THE FULTONIAN

Baseball

Fulton High baseball candidates began working out immediately after the Easter vacation. With only four regulars returning from last season, Coach Johnny Muscalmo had the task of molding a new team.

The team encountered Oswego on their home diamond. Fulton lost the contest by a tight score of 2 to 1. Don Pauley, burly pitcher of Oswego, allowed Fulton only three hits while he struck out 12 batters.

THE MEMBERS OF THE TEAM ARE:

Left Field .	Joe Blake
Center Field .	Adolph Kalafarski
Right Field .	Ronnie Lalik
First Base .	Nick Kush
Second Base .	Leonard Brosseau
Shortstop .	Joe Cushman and R. Hughes
Third Base .	E. Okoniewski and Joe Mirabito
Pitchers .	E. Bzdulski, and Frances Milesky
Catchers .	Uly Papini, and Leo Naiota

THE FULTONIAN

Soccer

About 30 boys reported for the first soccer practice in September. This year the Soccer players will be receiving major letter awards for the first time. The team was coached by Mr. Horrocks of the school faculty and managed by Frank Hayduk.

The Fulton boys lost two games to Central Square by scores of 4 to 0 and 2 to 2. Two more games were lost to Phoenix by scores of 4 to 2 and 6 to 4. One game was lost 6 to 0 to Mexico but in the return game Fulton tied them 2 all. A game was lost to Warners by a score of 2 to 0.

Six Fulton boys participated in the All Star Oswego County game. A team consisting of Fulton, Mexico, and Central Square beat a team consisting of Phoenix, Parish, and Williamstown by a score of 2 to 0.

The following boys were on the varsity:

James Smith—Inside Forward
Dan Gleba—Inside Forward
Robert Hanlon—Inside Forward
Lewis Kimball—Outside Forward
Dick Tilton—Outside Forward
Silvio Cardinali—Outside Forward
Clyde Grim—Outside Forward
Erwin Phillips—Center Forward
Captain-elect, 1940
Willis Woodward—Center Halfback
Art Nadeau—Fullback, Captain, 1940
Robert Smith—Fullback
Lewis Gardner—Goalie

Next year Fulton enters the Oswego County Soccer League. Good luck, boys!

THE FULTONIAN

Track

The Fulton High track team candidates began working out immediately after the Easter vacation. Under the able coaching of Mr. Bateman, the boys quickly rounded into shape. One track team planned to attend the invitation meet at Utica. Other meets with Pulaski and Oswego were also planned.

Boys' Bowling

The Fulton High School bowling team climaxed their season by entering the Interscholastic Bowling Tournament at Sherrill. In three matches the boys toppled a total of 2292 pins to place well in the running. The members of the team and their averages were:

Bill Bidwell	178
Nicholas Potocnak	173
Robert Heppell	172
Francis VanValkenburg .	163
Eugene Tracy	162

Cheerleaders

"Fight, team, fight!" yelled the energetic cheerleaders. To help keep up the winning spirit, two acrobats performed for the student body. The cheering squad consists of Mary Carr, Dorothy Shaver, Evelyn Safranski, Helen Tracy, Barbara Barnard, Phyllis Kneller, Daniel Grant, Jimmy Grim, and Mike Fisher.

Soft Ball Captains

This year soft ball is divided into two major leagues A and B. These are each captained by five captains. Captaining the A league are J. Tetro, J. Fanning, E. Gantley, H. Bower, H. Rogozinski.

P. Hoke, C. Smith, B. Raponi, V. McIlwain, and M. Crisafulli are the B league captains.

Girls' Basketball

The whistle blows and the opposing teams jump at center, working hard to become the first team.

Senior girls, captained by Mary Fichera, won first place this year. Her victorious girls are Sally Arnold, Dorothy Shaver, Barbara Treasure, Evelyn Safranski, Genevieve Wdowiak, and Ermida Cardinali.

These undefeated top honor girls have six games to their credit.

Ping Pong

"My serve; went off the table." The girls' finals were between Johanna and Christine Fuchs. Johanna not only won the girls' contest, but she also defeated the boys.

Champion—Johanna Fuchs

Second—Christine Fuchs

After a fierce struggle against the runners-up, John Casey came out ahead in the tournament against Oswego. Fulton came away with the honors.

Champion—John Casey

Second—Ulysses Papi

Third—Albert Cristofaro.

Fourth—John Procopio.

Hockey

After battling together for the past three years, the Junior team knocked the puck from side to side in order to receive the coveted first place. The captain was Rosemarie Fuchs and the manager was Peggy Rugg. Other members of the winning team were Christine and Johanna Fuchs, Irene Lamb, Frances Lamb, Betty Best, Naomi Loughrey, Edith Dodge, and Pearl and Julia Tetro.

The Senior team came in second. Their captain was Anna Malambri, and their manager was Eileen Gantley.

Volley Ball

Again you heard "Our Serve—Your Serve" when those nine teams were striving for top honor.

The winning team is captained by Julie Tetro, whose players are Pearl Tetro, Christine Fuchs, Rosemarie Fuchs, Naomi Lochrey, Edith Dodge, Dorothea Jacobs, and Mary St. Phillips.

These girls were undefeated with seven victories.

THE FULTONIAN

Girls' Bowling

"Strike! Spare! Shucks, a gutter ball." Such cries were heard at the various alleys by the girls out for bowling. The difficult task of managing the sixteen teams was given to Mary Leotta. Of the eight games rolled against Oswego, the Fultonians won six. However, they went down in defeat when Baldwinsville came here.

The members of the winning bowling team are:

Barbara Treasure, captain
Heien Bower
Barbara Broadwell

Marjorie Taylor
Kathryn Evans
Edna Brown

Hiking

"My corns! My feet are killing me." These were not uncommon phrases among the girl hikers. Once a week, for nine weeks, they went for a five-mile hike into the country. These were all taken via side roads. There were fifty girls under the leadership of Vesta Baldwin, Mary Fichera, and Eileen Gantley. More often than not, candy bars, apples, or something else of that nature could be found in the girls' pockets. Rain, wind, and cold air all went to build up fifty good hikers, who now, after much experience, really know what hiking is.

THE FULTONIAN

The Leading Role

A learned man once had foresight to say
The world is all a stage—we pause to think.

Far down through endless ages time and fate
Have worked as one with mighty molding hands.
They've set the stage for us with thoughtful care,
And watched us build our empires on the sands.

Soon hate, distrust, and war reap their sad gains,
And once-proud people fall beside their kings,
But some scarce few keep bright the light of hope
And once again the bell of freedom rings.

In such a world of strife and bitter hate
We wake to realize we are the men
Whose job it is to work the problems out
And then conclude a world-wide peace A-men.

Our acting must be good, our morals true,
Our aspirations tall and straight and strong.
With these we'll do the good we're here to do
And earn the right to sing glad freedom's song.

DOROTHY MACDOUGALL,
Class Poet.

WINTER INTERLUDE

Twilight falls. The dawning western sky
Is shadowy with messengers of night.
A great cool silence settles o'er the town,
And sweet supper smells float on the air,
And distant and far-off chimies are heard,
Softened by distance and the cold.

—Dorothy MacDougall

A DIARY

A little book with inviting pages
For the things that go with ages,
That by tomorrow will be Playing hide and seek with memory.

A home for all the odds and ends and strays
Of figures, facts, and little plays,
That shall be needed later on
To soothe our fears and fancies on.

—Richard Lamphear

TO A FLOWER

O Flower, with face uplifted to the sun,
I hail your freshness on this morn,
Bright as a star new born.
Clear and shining with dew drops you are crowned;
Each petal holds a silvery drop
Like a tiny star atop.
Fairer than all others there you stand;
Your anthers yet untouched by time;
Your dustless petals gold refined.
But soon, alas, your glory will be o'er
For on tomorrow there will be Another flower as fair as thee.

—Robert Austin

TO LAUGHTER

Elusive sprite of bubbling mirth
That haunts me oft' at thoughtful times,
'Tis hard to fathom merriness
When lost midst ghosts of former rhymes.
But when the music starts to play
And all trip out to join the dance,
I feel you wake within my heart
And travel to my lips to prance.
But after Fun has tired of play,
You creep back to your hiding place
And stay until you're called again
To light my often serious face.

—Dorothy MacDougall

"Hurry up! There's the five-minute bell. Golly, just under the ropes, and none to spare either, I don't mean maybe"

Sh-h-h! Mr. Wood is going to read the detention list for delinquent excuses. (That's a fifteen cent word—just acquired it. Ain't I intelligent?)

Oops, did he read my name? Yep, I guess that means I'll have eight periods today! Say, were you here the day Mr. Wood said to home room that an empty wagon makes the most noise? I thought I'd die! Golly, he's funny sometimes

Oh-oh, some blue invitations just came in. Hold your breath. Okay—not for me What a welcome relief!

Woops, there's the buzzer and I haven't my books—Hey, wait a sec Listen, just 'cause you sit next to Ken Winter doesn't give you a year's lease on him! What? Course I know what the assignment for English is review. It isn't!?! What is it? A short story! For cat's sake, don't bother me a short story now let me see

Jumping Jupiter, there's the bell; I gotta powder my nose. It looks like the fender of a 1941 auto. You heard the jingle:

"When my nose is shiny,

Then you know my cares are tiny

There's Mary Carr and "Tod" Gillard—every season of the year is spring for them—Ain't love swell?—(I wouldn't know).

Will this morning never end? My stomach is playing a tattoo on my ribs I'm so hungry—

Huh? That's Norma Sylvester and Ted Meagher. Cute couple, don't you think?

C'mon there's the buzzer—I'm starved Hush, Miss Markham is going to read the notice What!!! A Senior meeting tomorrow. What a lovely surprise Wonder what's up now or down. Hard to tell. Make it snappy; I can hear those pork chops calling

Well, here we are. Not much time to spare again. I gotta get a move on me.

No attendance this noon. Bet Miss Connors forgot! Nope, here she comes. Boy, she certainly is a busy woman!

Well, I might as well saunter along to Dickens and Thackeray. You know I don't get along with those guys very well

"Miss Bonner, I (Should I tell her I haven't finished my story?)" What?!?!?! Did she just say she wasn't going to collect those stories—after all the work I did on it—a whole day and a half. Oh great day, she's giving the assignment. What a whopper, but such is life! I guess. Here comes Charlie Beckwith and Don Blake—missed half the class—Oh, they've been to the office. My, my, but that's not so unusual, is it? Miss Bonner told Charlie one day he laughed like an animal in the zoo (you guess which one; she didn't say). It's a wonder someone didn't bring a bag of peanuts

There's the bell—one more struggle—Golly, I'd like to sleep but I guess I can't—the Jackson-Calhoun fight keeps interrupting my slumbers. Heavenly day—this last bell is long. Everyone but the teachers have spring fever.

Hot dog!! There's the buzzer. My goodness, no notices. Tsk, tsk, what's this institution of learning coming to?

Lookit—I'm going to drop in on Senior play rehearsal tonight. Want to come along? They say it's almost a knock-down drag-out fight Lorrain Mitchell and Leigh Fadden get into And my dear, those clinches—they say Leigh goes right to town. And that Bill Taylor is no store dummy when it comes to love scenes with Louise Marshall either. Those men are pretty amorous. Now, I just heard; I don't know.

I'll see ya at seven, then.

Don't be late. So long!!!

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to the study of the asymptotic behavior of the solutions of the system (1) as $t \rightarrow \infty$. It is shown that the solutions of the system (1) are bounded and tend to zero as $t \rightarrow \infty$ if the matrix A is stable. The second part of the paper is devoted to the study of the asymptotic behavior of the solutions of the system (1) as $t \rightarrow \infty$ if the matrix A is not stable. It is shown that the solutions of the system (1) are unbounded and tend to infinity as $t \rightarrow \infty$ if the matrix A is not stable.
